SCORE DESCRIPTION

Speaking

- * Can provide descriptions, arguments, and support for opinions in familiar contexts or related to a field of interest.
- * Can speak with some degree of fluency with some pauses.
- * Can use a wide range of simple language with some successful attempts at using more complex forms.
- * Can use some features of appropriate intonation, sometimes place stress correctly, and articulate familiar words clearly.

Listening

- * Can generally understand extended, complex, or abstract speech on a wide variety of familiar and unfamiliar topics, even when that speech is not clearly structured.
- * Can often understand extended discussions even when relationships between speakers are not explicit, making inferences and understanding shifts in register and implied meaning.
- * Can identify the attitudes of speakers in a wide variety of contexts.
- * Can usually understand spontaneous speech even when it contains idiomatic and colloquial expressions.

HOW TO READ YOUR SCORE REPORT:

- * The Overall Score is the average of the Individual Scores.
- * Proficiency Description table can be found on our website, www.ets.org/toeic.
- * The range of overall scores associated with each CEFR level is estimated by adding the relevant cut scores from the CEFR mappings for the individual scores. Whenever possible, ETS encourages score users to consider CEFR levels separately for Listening, Speaking, Reading and Writing rather than using a single overall estimate based on the overall score. This approach is more precise and considers a test taker's language profile, which may differ between the individual scores.
